

The Spitfire and Bishop's Waltham

BISHOP'S
WALTHAM
MUSEUM

Vicki Stacey and Alan Matlock present the findings of the 2018 Nuffield Theatres Southampton's "Out of the Shadows" project: a lottery funded venture which grew out of a new play: "The Shadow Factory", by acclaimed Hampshire writer, Howard Brenton.

The play tells the story of the bombing of the Supermarine Factories in Woolston in September 1940 and the subsequent dispersal of Spitfire production across the city and beyond.

The talk will present an overview of the whole project, which included interviews with surviving Supermarine workers, with a local focus on the requisitioned stores in Claylands and the 'secret' airfield and aircraft construction at Marwell Hall.

Monday 8th April, 2019 at the Youth Hall (change from original venue), Bishop's Waltham at 7.30pm.

The talk follows the Bishop's Waltham Palace Museum Trust AGM AT 7pm.

All Welcome to both.
